

Henndrik Van Lennep named Salesman of the Year by the Marriot Sales Department

On Thursday evening the Marriott Sales and Marketing Department, consisting of those that are selling the units for the Marriott Ocean and Surf Clubs, held their annual Christmas Bash. It was an elegant affair in black and gold in the Palm Beach Ballroom of the Wyndham Resort, Spa & Casino. The highlight of the event was the naming of the top sales people, and newcomer Henrik Van Lennep, only with the sales force for one year, took home the trophy and a substantial bonus for his extraordinary performance. As one Marriott OPC described it “far and away ahead of the rest.” There were many other prizes awarded and recognition for great sales performance, but The News offers their congratulations to the Salesman of the Year, Hendrik van Lennep!
